FAST MILE BY HAMBURG BELLE.

BEATS MOLLY BRANT A LENGTH

IN 1:38 4-3. Graziallo Takes Turf Handlehp From Jacquin in a Drive-Fine Cloth, an English Colt by the Great Melton, Captures the Handicap for Two-Year-Olds.

Hamburg Belle, always consistent and a sepat race mare, proved her worth in the fourth race at Sheepshead Bay vesterday in the steeplechase, which opens the card, afternoon when she ran a mile over a fast track in 1:38 4-6, facing a strong wind that blew up the homestretch from the ocean. This famous daughter of the noted Hamburg met John Sanford's Molly Brant at even weights and beat her by a length and a half in clever style, with James B. Brady's theau, carrying 115 pounds, eight lengths back and the two-year-olds Sidney F, and Edna Jackson bringing up the rear. Hainburk Belle was the favorite, though she went up to ft to 10, the favorite, though she went up to fi to 10, while both Molly Brant and Giseau receded to 7 to 2 as Edna Jackson, owned by Senator McCarren, was backed down to 10 to 1. At the start the McCarren filly set a fast pace, leading Molly Brant and the backstretch. There it was that the Belle showed in front for the first time, and as she quickly drew clear of the others that result was no longer in doubt. Willie Knapp put the Sanford mare under the whip at the last furlong pole, but she was never able to get up. Dayia shoking the Paget filly able to get up, Davis amaking the Paget filly up just enough to make the race a sure thing. Oiseau began to drop back at the head of the stretch and came home four lengths before

Sidney F.

The stake feature was the Turf Handicap at a mile and a quarter, which wound up the card. Graziallo was the choice, and after following the pace set by Dave Johnson's Jacquin, second choice, for over a mile he caught the latter and beat him by a length in a drive, the time being 207. Miss Crawford, who was played down to 10 to 1, was three lengths back, while Shorthose and Dolly Spanker, an added starter, were both badly beaten.

spanker, an added starter, were both badly spanker, an added starter, were both badly beaten.

Mrs. L. Curtis's Eugenla Burch, a 7 to 1 shot, was splendidly ridden by John Bullman in the handicap at a mile and three sixteenths. Bullman waited with her to the far turn, where he hooked up with Spring, 8 to 1, the top weight, who had made all the running, and in a smashing drive she won by a head in 2.91 1-5. Spring had two lengths ever Humo, the favorite, with the others straggling home, beaten all sorts of distances. Fine Cloth, an English bred colt by Melton, the sire of Sysonby, who was backed from 50 to 1 down to twelves, was successful in the handicap for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. Crimmins cut him loose at the bend in the Futurity course, and, standing a long drive, he took the race by a length from Sydney Paget's Kinleydale, who was coupled with Watergrass at 7 to 2. Senator McCarren's Sly Ben. 7 to 1, was third, a half length back, with a length over James Reddick, 15 to 1. Yalagal, the favorite, and Ravena, heavily played, were nowhere. Fine Cloth's time was 1:07 3-5.

The first race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, straight, went to Sufficiency, a 12 to 1 shot, who came home a length and a half in front of Woodford Clay's Cary, played down to 6 to 1. Sir Caruthers, 6 to 1, was third, beating Third Alarm, 25 to 1, by asmall margin. Confederate and Ruth W., equal favorites, never threatened to do anything.

Fustian, 7 to 1, took the fifth event, at six furlongs, by a neck, with Luretta, 7 to 2; running in the place and Right and True, the favorite, a poor third. The race was run in 1:13 4-5. The usual crow of 15,000 persons was on hand, and two favorites won. The summaries:

Racing at Latonia

CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—E. C. May and his trainer were called before Judge Murphy to day at Latonia and asked to explain Maiada's strange reversal of form vesterday, when he finished second to Black Fox. May and his trainer asserted that the last time Miada ran she hurt her feet he the workout, which secondred for her poor showing. The stable did not expect her to run such a good race, and only played her to show. May and his trainer were warned to report any accident that might befall their entry and it would be excused from starting. Summary: Summary:

Providence. PROVIDENCE, Sept. 1 —The card at Narra-gansett to-day proved an attractive one for 9,000 persons who attended the meeting. The program included the special match race between Tiverton and Sweet Marie, and the free-for-all, which brought together the fastest horses in the country.

In the match race although Tiverton opened a slight favorite, there was nothing to it but Sweet Marie. The mare led him around in both heats and when Tiverton tried to make a race of it down the stretch he broke badly in both heats. The gelding was not fit, and in the workouts before the race it was noticed that he appeared sore. It was this soreness that threw him off his stride and lost him the that threw him off his stride and lost him the race.

The free-for-all went to Nathan Straus in straight heats, although John M. opened a slight favorite. Nervola took second money. In the unfinished 2.25 pace Albula, who was played second choice yesterday and who took two heats of the race, won the third and deciding heat to-day. Inter-Ocean making another bad break that destroyed his chances of winning. Choir Boy, the popular choice in the 2.16 class, finished with the tailenders in both heats, W. J. Lewis winning the event. Boreazelle, the favorite, won the 2.24 trot in straight heats. The final race of the day, the 2.09 trot, was unfinished when darkness caused the postponement of the event until to-morrow. In the two heats run off The Roman took one and Jim Ferry the other.

The track was beavy and a halt of nearly an hour was called to allow it to dry out. The summary:

NEWPORT, Sept. 1 .- There was played at the Casino this morning a mixed doubles lawn tennis tournament, one in the series of tournaments arranged by Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Barger Wallach and Miss Maude Wetmore.

The match of the day was that between

Mrs. Barger Wallach and Mr. Jones against Mrs. Barger Wallach and Mr. Jones against Marion Fenno and K. Horton in the second round, the second set of which was very close and exciting. The match between Miss Sears and Mr. Larned against Miss Iselin and Mr. Whitman was also an exhibition of good tennis, and there was a large crowd of enthusiasts around the courts.

Late this afternoon the final was played, in which the winners were Mrs. Barger Wallach and J. E. D. Jones, they defeating Miss Sears and W. A. Larned. It took three sets to decide the match, which was not as interesting as were those of the morning. The results:

ANOTHER KILLING SUCCEEDS.

RING LOSES $100,000 ON FINE CLOTH'S VICTORY.

Three Plungers Make an Agreement to Keep Down Their Bets Ormondale May Not Race Again This Year-Operations in the Ring at Sheepshead Bay.

Killings seem to be an everyday occurrence at Sheepshead Bay just now. Following the big coup with Killkare on Thursday came another of similar proportions yesterday in the third race, when T. L. Watt's Fine Cloth, backed from 60 to 1 down to 12, came home with the money. Ring sharps estimated the amount of money won on this trick at $100,000, nearly every book paying out something. Many bets were made on Fine Cloth with badge numbers, so that the identity of the successful players was not disclosed. But J. Grant Lyman was one of the heaviest winners. He went up and down the line placing $25 at a clip and then $100 at any price obtainable until it was said that he was at least $35,000 richer after the numbers went up. Charley Fox, Doc Kyle, Doc Ashe, who cashed on Killkare, and other smart fellows who make a practise of playing long shots, were in line when the time came to cash. A man who had $25 on the colt at 50 to 1 was so excited when he saw that he would win that he created a scene by yelling frantically: "I've got him! I've got him!" After which he lost control of his legs and fell to the ground.

Fine Cloth, by Melton—Fiona, the latter an English mare and not the one who once raced in the Rancocas silks in this country, was brought over from the other side last fall by Douglass Grand with others, and was sold privately to T. L. Watt of Harlem for $1,400. Watt had both Consistent, who has won ten consecutive races, and Fine Cloth entered in the race but as Consistent Crimmins was engaged to ride Fine (loth, and as soon as it became known in the ring that a killing was being framed up there was a rush to get aboard. At the last moment many of the layers, smarting under the Kill-kare coup, became wary and refused further Fine Cloth wagers, much to their satisfaction when the colt won. Fine Cloth had run only once before, when he started in a race at the Bay on Aug. 28. On that occasion he finished next to last, beaten by Blair Athol, Athlete, Tangle, Commune, Ben Hodder and Kinleydale. He had fifteen pounds less to carry yesterday and his performance was a wonderful improvement.

Many of the big betters are growing discouraged with the way the horses are running. E. E. Smathers, A. B. Hudson and Oscar Lewisohn, who are among the number, have formed an ironclad agreement to the effect that the one who first bets more than $100 on a race during the present meeting must forfeit $5,000 to each of the others. As a result of this compact the parties to it were betting on an average $25 to a race yesterday.

James B. Brady was much disappointed Crimmins was engaged to ride Fine Cloth.

betting on an average $25 to a race yesterday.

James B. Brady was much disappointed over the showing of Oiseau in the Hamburg Belle race. Brady has all along held to the opinion that next to Sysonby and Artful Oiseau is the best horse in training. With extreme confidence, therefore, he wagered $5,000 on his costly colt yesterday only to see him disgracefully beaten. Following as it does, the defeat of Water Light, Brady's other star, in the Reapers Sta'es on Thursday, this setback has discouraged both Brady and Trainer Allen, but they will try the Arms colt again in the near future with the idea that he may redeem himself. colt again in the near future with the idea that he may redeem himself.

Trainer Tom Walsh said yesterday that Ormondale, the Futurity winner, who is suffering from a slight attack of blood poisoning, may not race again this year. He stated that the colt's owner, W. O'B. MacDonough, did not care to take any chances with Ormondale in his present plight, particularly as he has a number of rich three-year-old engagements, after which he will probably be retired to the stud in California. Ormondale would have had to carry 120 pounds in the Flatbush Stakes to-day, and even at his best would have probably had a hard time to prove the equal of at least two of the starters named to go.

Tourney.

California, the world's champion, to-day in the tri-State tennis tournament defeated Miss Helen Homans of New York in the women's finals, by the score of 6-0, 6-1.

Miss Sutton and R. D. Little defeated MissHomans and Robert Leroy. While the former team won in straight sets, both went to deuce, the scores being 71-15, 7-5.

NEW YORK RIFLEMEN WIN

A SENSATIONAL FINISH IN NA-TIONAL TEAM MATCH.

match was won by New York for the third straight time in a sensational finish with the infantry team to-day that will make the match of 1905 rank as the greatest military match ever shot on American soil. When the last pair of the New York team came up to the firing line late in the afternoon, the army team had finished and seventeen points were needed by the New Yorkers to win the national trophy. 144

Interesting Matches at Van Cortlandt Park-Play at Pittsfield.

The second and third rounds of match play for the cup under the auspices of the New York Golf Club were played yes-terday at Van Cortlandt Park. The play terday at van Cortlandt Park. The play throughout the day was good, but two most interesting matches were played in the after-noon, both of which carried fine galleries and were finished at the home green. There was a hard struggle for supremacy between G. C. Rowe and C. V. Benton. Rowe went out in 38 to his opponent's 40 and led by 1 up at the turn, having won three holes to his opponent's two, the other four being halved.
On the homeward journey Benton took the lead at the eleventh hole for the first time and maintained it until the seventeenth hole, when the match was all square, Rowe winning on the home green. They each won two holes the other five heing helps helps. won two holes, the other five being halved.

The match between G. P. Lawson and J. R. Turner was fully as interesting. Turner started off in a dashing style by winning the first three holes in fours, but as Lawson turned the tables on him by taking the next three holes in fours, the match was all square at the sixth. Turner took the seventh in 3, but Lawson returned the compliment by winning the next two and was 1 up at the turn. They were all square at the eleventh, and after Lawson leading by 2 up at the thirteenth honors were again even at the fifteenth. After winning hole about Lawson won the match on the home green.

Three close matches were also played in the morning, all of which were carried to the home green. The summary of the day's play is as follows:

Second Round—W. C. Massena beat J. C. Davis. won two holes, the other five being balved.

PITTSPIELD, Mass., Sept. 1.—T. M. Sherman of Utica won the Lenox cup to-day, defeating Malcolm McBurney of Skuckbridge, the holder, by 5 up and 4 to play on the thirty-six hole final. At the turn of eighteen holes Sherman was four down. In the afternoon, however, he made a fine exhibition of golf and at twenty-seven holes had his opponent 3 down, winning seven holes out of nine in the tour of the course.

The Berkshire cup was won by John Moller, Jr., of Garden City, who beat J. L. Taylor of Ekwanok, 3 up and 2 to play.

John Sloane, Jr., of Lenox defeated Dr. E. Hodenpyl of Apawamis for the Paterson cup, 6 up and 5 to play.

For the field cup, J. D. Bowers of Brooklawn beat Ernest A. Thomson of Pittsfield. 13 up and 11 to go. Bowers played record golf, making a new record of 76 for eighteen holes in the morning.

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 1.—A handigan golf.

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 1.—A handicap golf competition, thirty-six holes against bogy, here to-day on the Ekwanok links for a cup presented by E. F. Harrington of Hartford was won by P. S. CHILDS TROPHY CHANGES HANDS Ogeemah Captures Prize for the New York Canoe Club.

The New York Canoe Club captured the W. H. Childs perpetual challenge trophy from the Bensonhurst Yacht Club on Graves-end Bay yesterday afternoon. The Bensonhurst club has heretofore successfully de-fended the coveted prize throughout the season. In accordance with the condi-tions there can be but three races in one year for the trophy, and as two have already been sailed yesterday's event gaye the New York Canoe Club the custodianship of the prize until next season. The challenging yacht Ogeemah, owned by Alfred McKay, though the last boat to finish on corrected time, defeated the representative of the Marine and Field Club, F. J. Haven's Quest, the first yacht to finish, by 3 minutes and seconds, and the defender, More Trouble, by 5 minutes and 3 seconds.

The course sailed by the yachts was from

The course sailed by the yachts was from the committee boat anchored off Ulmer Park to bell buoy 13, a little to the south of Fort Wadsworth, then to and around buoy 7, which is off the West Bank light, and then home, making a voyage that aggregated eleven and one-half nautical miles. A good southern wind that held steady throughout sent the boats off on the first less which was a reach to the Staten Island nurs. Then came five miles of windward work followed by a run home.

Quest got the best of the start, an advantage that she never lost. More Trouble was second around all the marks, with Ogeemah always a few minutes astern. Quest was well handled by J. R. Brophy, who incidentally is the designer of the victorious Ogeemah, which was sailed by Dick Moore conceded to be one of the best sailors in the lower bay. C. Mower, the designer, was at the tiller of the defending yacht, More Trouble. The summary:
